1 • Pick a product you can finish this week

The best first product is small, specific, and solves one problem. Journals, planners, prompt packs, and short ebooks all convert well on AurumVault.

- Journals & planners — 30/60/90-day structures with printable and fillable editions.
- Prompt packs — 50–150 prompts grouped by use case, with a short how-to-use intro.
- Ebooks & guides — 20–60 pages that take a reader from problem to result.

2 • Pricing guide

Product type	Starter price	Premium / bundle	You keep (85%)
Prompt pack	$7.99	$14.99	$6.79 – $12.74
Journal (90-day)	$9.99	$19.99	$8.49 – $16.99
Planner + fillable PDF	$12.99	$24.99	$11.04 – $21.24
Ebook / guide	$9.99	$19.99	$8.49 – $16.99

Tip: launch at the starter price, then add an interactive fillable edition as a paid upgrade instead of discounting.

3 • Listing template

Copy this structure into your product description — it is the format that sells best on AurumVault.

- Title — Outcome + format. Example: “Kingdom Mind 90-Day Growth Journal (Printable + Fillable)”.
- First line — Who it is for and what changes after they use it.
- What's inside — 4-6 bullets: page count, sections, formats included.
- How to use it — 2-3 sentences on the daily or weekly routine.
- What you get — File types, device compatibility, instant download.
- Cover — 1600×2400px, readable title at thumbnail size, no clutter.

4 • Launch checklist

- Apply to sell at aurumvault.store/sell and complete your creator profile.
- Add your payout method and choose weekly or monthly payouts.
- Upload your file (PDF), set price, category, and subcategory.
- Add cover art plus 2-3 interior preview pages.
- Write the listing using the template above; proofread the first two lines.
- Publish, then share your product link to your audience within 24 hours.
- Post a 3-part launch sequence: teaser, launch, last-call.

5 • First 30 days

- Week 1 — launch one product and collect your first 5 reviews.
- Week 2 — add a bundle or interactive edition upgrade.
- Week 3 — publish a second product in the same category.
- Week 4 — review what sold, double down, and retire what didn't.
